

Halloween Tear Story

Once there was a little old lady who lived in a funny orange house near name of your school. Her house was shaped like half a circle with the chimney at the bottom.

This little lady had a cat named child's name in your room. This cat had a long, curved tail, so the old lady had a special door cut just for the cat's tail.

The little lady always wore a pointed hat. She had a special door built for herself, too, so her hat would not fall off every time she went in and out the door.

The little lady had two pet birds. Their names were child's name and child's name. She had a window cut just for them so they could fly in and out and in and out.

It was getting close to Halloween, so all the children in teacher's name classroom went to her house and knocked on her door. The little lady came to the door and said, "Close your eyes." SURPRISE! It's a jack-o-lantern!
