

Here, Kitty, Kitty!

Here is Timmy's house.
It's made with the letter T.

It has two rooms.

Each room has a chimney and a window.

Growing outside the door is tall grass.

Here's his friend Suzie's house. It's made with the letter S.

One day Timmy went to Suzie's house to borrow some milk.

Suzie took Timmy down in the basement to get the milk.

They slipped and spilled the milk, so they went back down in the basement and got more.

Timmy took a shortcut home. He went down one valley and up a hill.

Then he went down another valley and up another hill.

He gave the milk to his special pet when he got home. Can you guess what it was?
