

Three Brave Hunters

Three brave hunters
Set out one day
To capture a monster
Who lived far away. (1)

They rode their canoe (2)
Far, far from home
Till they came to the land
Where the monsters roam. (3)

They set up their tents (4)
Then looked around
For monster footprints
But none were found.

Just as they were getting
Ready for bed
Into their tent
Rolled a great big head. (5)

Its eyes were aglow
Its face wore a grin
And when it opened its mouth
They saw the fire within.

The hunters grabbed their things
And ran away
Back to their homes
Where they planned to stay.

They didn't hear the monster
Ask if they could play!
And they didn't see him cry
As they ran away.
